Young Women in the Race for the Ring to Be Given Away at Hospital

Three of the most popular young women of St. Mary's parish are in the race at the Hospital fair for the diamond ring that will be given away tonight. Balloting has been going on since the opening night. The con-will close at 9:30 o'clock tonight.

The girls being voted for are Miss Stella Matthews, Miss Anna Delature and Miss Lulu Linbaugh. Friends of the three are making strenuous efforts to win a majority of the votes and some heavy balloting will mark the last hours of the contest.

The Sisters of St. Francis, who have charge of the fair, express satisfaction with the manner in which the people have patronized them, and a crowd larger than ever is looked for this evening. A large number of the articles displayed in the booths have been sold and chances on the goods to be raffled tomorrow night are nearly all taken.

The Sisters of St. Francis wish to announce that the reason for charg-ing an admission to the hospital fair prevent such enormous crowds of sightseers, who block the building and make it almost impossible to wait upon customers.

Every person paying an admission a ticket to a drawing to take place later at which many beautiful articles are to be given
